Emily and Jake have been best friends since they were kids. They've shared countless laughs, secrets, and adventures together. But as they grow older, the lines between friendship and love start to blur.

Emily has always had a secret crush on Jake, but she's never acted on it. She's afraid of ruining their friendship, which is more important to her than anything.

But when Jake starts dating someone else, Emily's jealousy gets the better of her. She realizes that she can't keep her feelings hidden any longer.

Jake is surprised when Emily confesses her love for him. He's always thought of her as a friend, but he starts to see her in a new light.

They begin a secret relationship, but they know that it's only a matter of time before someone finds out. And when they do, it could ruin everything.

Against All Odds is a steamy friends-to-lovers romance that will leave you breathless. Emily and Jake's journey is full of forbidden desire, stolen kisses, and moments of intense passion.
