The highly anticipated new thriller from the Sunday Times bestselling author of The Last Widow is here!

Ben Hope is back in an unmissable new thriller that will keep you on the edge of your seat from the first page to the last. When a young woman is found murdered in a quiet coastal town, Detective Superintendent Ben Hope is called in to investigate. The victim, Sarah Jones, was a local teacher who was well-liked and respected by the community. Her brutal killing has sent shockwaves through the town, and Hope is determined to find her killer and bring him to justice.

As Hope begins his investigation, he quickly realizes that there is more to this case than meets the eye. Sarah Jones was not who she seemed, and her past is shrouded in mystery. Hope soon finds himself drawn into a web of lies, deceit, and corruption that reaches the highest levels of power. The stakes are high, and Hope knows that if he is not careful, he could be the next victim.

With his trademark tenacity and determination, Hope follows the clues wherever they lead, even if they take him into dangerous territory. He uncovers a sinister plot that threatens to destroy not only the town of his birth but the entire country. Hope must race against time to stop the killer and save the day, but can he do it before it's too late?
