Destination 2: The Rocky Mountains

Ascend into the majestic Rocky Mountains, where nature's grandeur unfolds before you. Explore a mountain meadow, where you'll learn about the local flora and its culinary uses. Gather ingredients for a rustic feast, prepared over an open fire, and savor the flavors of the wilderness.

Destination 3: The American Southwest

Venture into the sun-drenched American Southwest, where cacti and desert wildflowers paint a vibrant tapestry. Visit a local farm and learn about sustainable agriculture. Participate in a traditional Native American cooking class, where you'll create authentic dishes that have been passed down through generations.

Destination 4: The Deep South

Journey to the Deep South, where the flavors are as rich as the history. Explore a historic plantation, where you'll learn about the culinary traditions of the region. Visit a renowned barbecue joint and indulge in succulent meats, slathered in flavorful sauces.

Destination 5: The New England Coast

Your culinary adventure concludes on the picturesque New England coast. Dive into the world of seafood at a bustling fish market, where you'll witness the freshest catches being unloaded and sold. Embark on a fishing expedition, where you'll learn the techniques of local fishermen.

Accommodation and Dining

Along the Forest Feast Road Trip, you'll stay in charming guesthouses, rustic lodges, and quaint inns that embrace the spirit of each region. Dine at local restaurants that showcase the culinary artistry of each destination, from farm-to-table bistros to award-winning fine dining establishments.
